

Mostecká 3/55

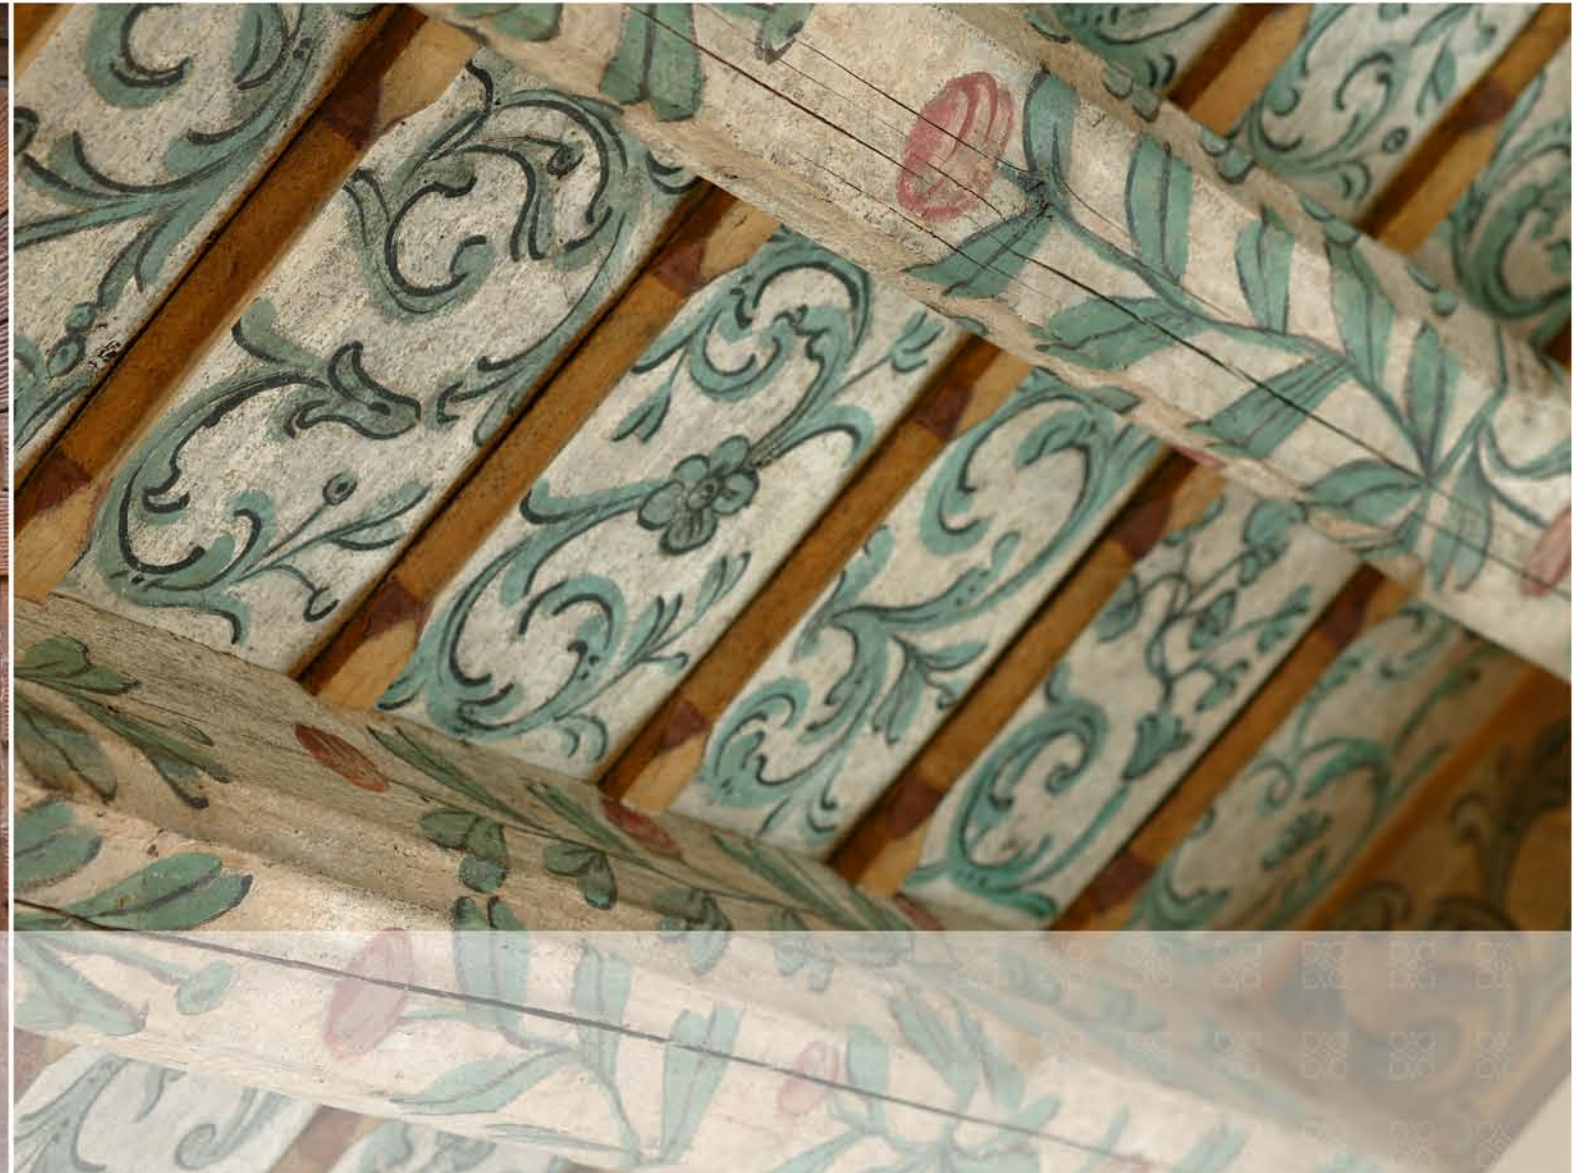

Surroundings

Mostecka street is located at the most beautiful part of historical Prague - at Mala Strana. The street is a part of so called Kings route, which goes from the Old Town through Charles bridge and up the Nerudova street directly to the Prague Castle.

History

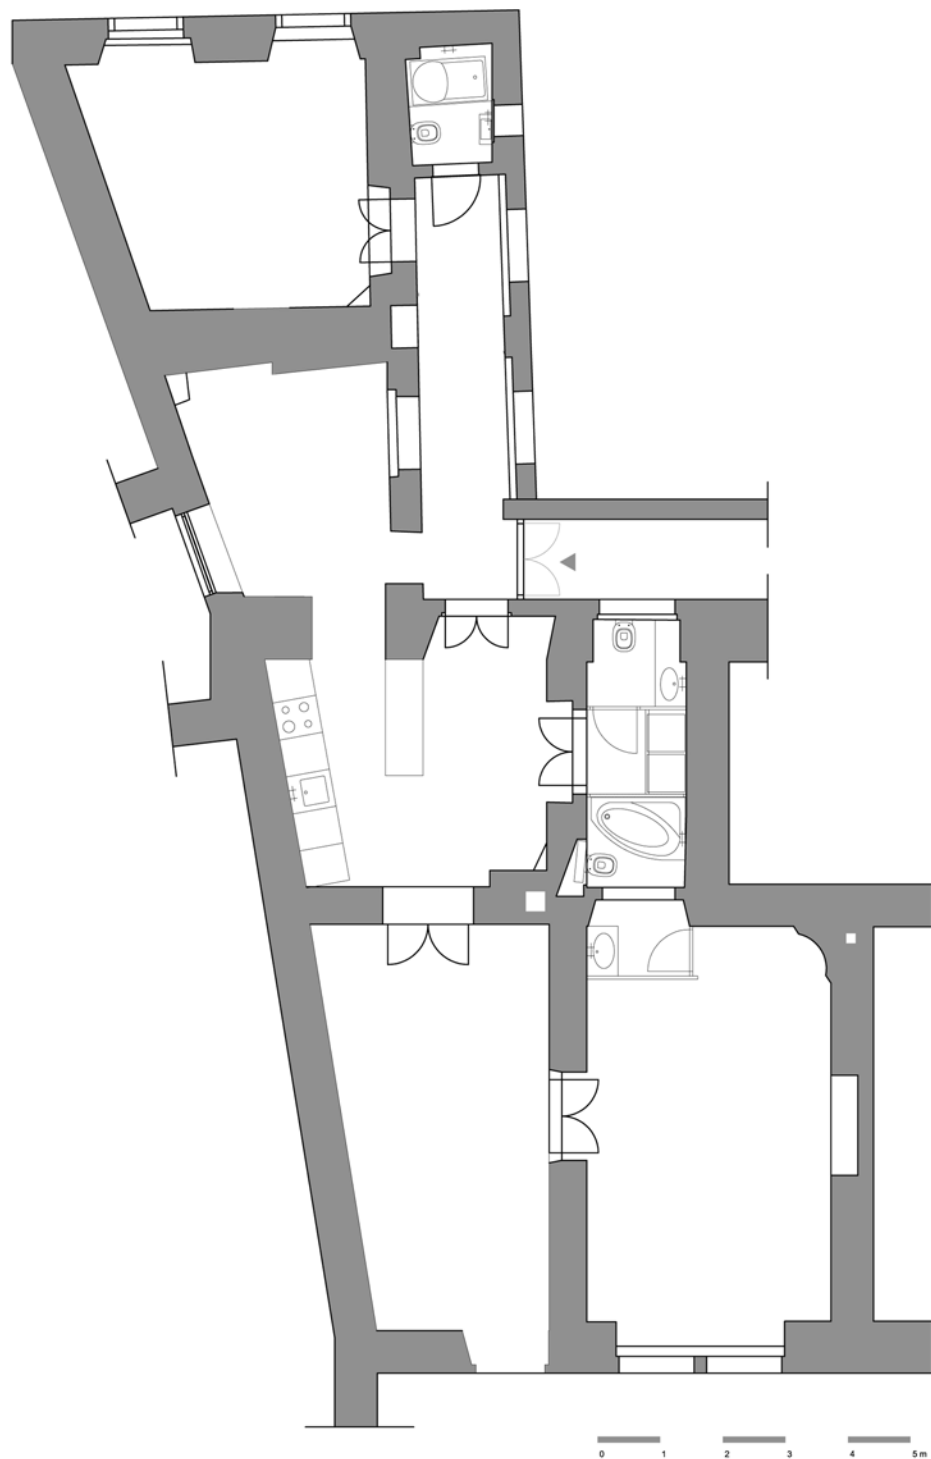

Our luxury apartment is a part of one of the oldest prague's gothic buildings, so called Saxon house, which has been built shortly after the finishing of the Charles bridge, at 14.century.

History is united with present

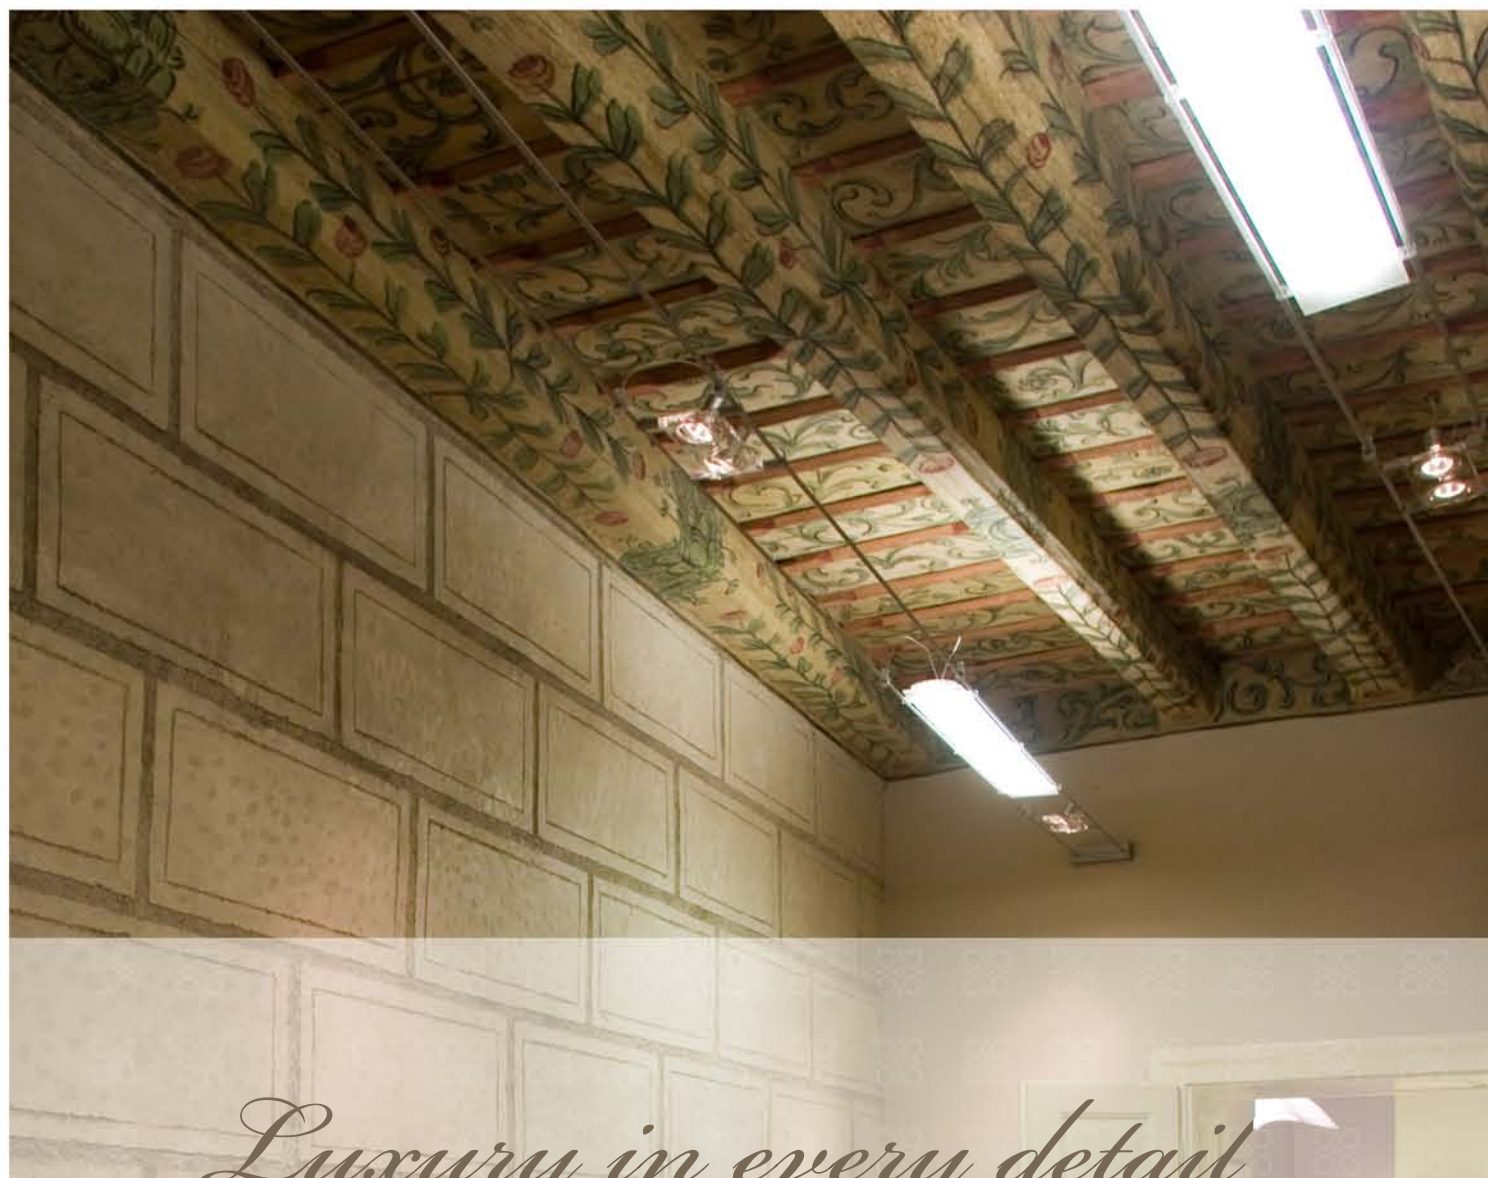

The kitchen, with custom made designed cabinets has no wall of its own, since it is directly connected with the entrance to the Charles bridge - the Mostecka tower. You can see the medieval stones for yourself, as well as the bridge gargoyles in front of the windows.

Disposition

The apartment is located at the first level of the house and has a 108 m². There are fully equipped two bedrooms, kitchen, dinning room and living room. Each bedroom has a bathroom and there is also toilet for visitors at the entrance. The place is electronically secured, has a satellite connection and is very quiet, thanks to triple-pan windows.

Luxury in every detail

Perfectly renovated renaissance ceilings are in full correspondence with the great piece of work from the czech glass masters.

Comfortable housing

Simple, cool elegance of interior is uncommonly unified with genius loci of this special space and with perfect workmanship as well.
